1. Senior Executive Course

For the 26 September running of this course by the Department of Defense Computer Institute, we have firm enrollments from [ ] 25X1A and Emmett Echols. Last week we learned informally through the Office of Personnel that the Joint Chiefs of Staff are reviewing the general subject of military personnel detailed to CIA. Presumably this includes a review of existing policy agreements and quotas in the light of Vietnam commitments, Selective Service pressures, etc.; and it is possible that CTP's military sponsorship program may be affected. I have no further details as of this date but I mention the matter simply for information. We will keep
